

HEINOUS CRIME DISCOVERED BELOW TONOPAH

Peril Between England and Turkey Believed To Be Ended

MUTUAL AGREEMENT IS REACHED AND TROOPS ARE HELD IN ABEYANCE

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 2.—An immediate mutual agreement to suspend all movements of troops is expected here today to be the first outcome of the Mudania armistice which is to meet tomorrow. The peril of war between Great Britain and Turkey appeared less menacing.

The conference will discuss the occupation of eastern Thrace by detachments of interallied troops during the Greek army's withdrawal. The expectation here is that the Greek evacuation will begin immediately after the conference, permitting the establishment of Turkish administrative control.

Great Britain's recession from the neutral zone controversy caused no little surprise and disappointment here, but it was generally admitted the step was the only thing which could have stayed Mustafa Kemal Pasha's hand. It is pointed to as another instance of England's extraordinary patience and earnest desire to avoid war. Up to the time of Brigadier General Harrington's tempering note Saturday night the situation looked exceedingly critical. It is now conceded his tact and tolerance, coupled with the timely arrival of reinforcements from England, prevented the Turks from striking at Chanak.

A band of 800 Turkish irregulars crossed the border of Thrace at Samski to the northwest of Silivri, 40 miles west of Constantinople, and attacked the Greek outposts. The Greeks were being forced to withdraw when reinforcements arrived and the Turks were thrown back across the boundary.

RUSSIAN DANCER VERY INDIGNANT WHEN DETAINED

With Husband They Have Interpreter That They May Understand Each Other

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Isadora Duncan, the Russian classic dancer, and her young Russian poet husband, Sergei Yesselin, who were detained by the immigration authorities when they arrived on the steamship Paris yesterday, will be given a hearing at Ellis island late today. Officials insisted their detention was merely on the grounds that the couple might prove undesirable citizens, but there was a hint that the authorities wanted to question them as to their pro-soviet dealings and the possibility that they might intend to spread propaganda. The dancer was born in California and was highly indignant. Her secretary acts as interpreter between her and her husband and she speaks no Russian and he knows neither English nor French.

Miss Duncan appeared in a half barbaric Russian costume of brilliant colors. She wore bright red Russian boots, which flapped around her ankles as if she were wearing fisherman's boots, and bells clanked when she walked. At first she stamped her foot and said she would stay on the Paris and return on the liner rather than go to Ellis island. Today it was said by line officials she had changed her mind, but was determined not to leave the ship until just before she was called before the board.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Labor department officials explained that Isadora Duncan and her husband were not allowed to land at New York because immigration regulations providing that all aliens must appear before the immigration board of review prior to admission and because the board does not meet on Sunday.

ALTO SHOWING IS IMPROVING ALMOST DAILY

High-Grade Lenses of Ore Are Showing in Raise Carried From 400-Foot Level

The showing on the Alto Divide continues to make an improvement. Operations are being prosecuted on the 400 level and the drift has been advanced to the west over 500 feet. A raise is now being carried and has been advanced for 15 feet with a fine streak of ore being in evidence. Two assays that were had the latter part of last week showed values of 40 ounce gold and 34 ounces silver, and 80 ounce gold and 44 ounces silver a ton. An average car sample of ten cars showed average values of $10 a ton. The ore zone is 150 feet long and seams of exceptionally high grade ore are in evidence.

The Alto is making a splendid showing and the outlook is most promising for a shipping mine being developed during the next few weeks, and as a result development will be hurried along by Joe Mayer, the efficient superintendent.

PREMIER KATO IS ACCUSED BY MILITARY BOSS

Newspaper Says Head of Army Has Placed Japan Among Lesser Powers

TOKIO, Oct. 2.—Views of the old militaristic clique are voiced by the Kokumin, the military and jingo organ. In an editorial the Kokumin accused Premier Kato of putting Japan among the lesser powers by his armament reduction policies. The Kokumin said:

"After the Sino-Japanese war the Japanese believed they soon would be able to raise themselves to the position of a first-class power. The victory over Russia strengthened their belief. The late Emperor and Prince Yamagata and the other deceased elder statesmen were inspired by the one ideal of making Japan a really great country."

"The late Mr. Hara took glory in speaking of Japan being a first-class power, he wishing to remove my doubt about the part Prince Saionji played at the Versailles conference. Premier Kato takes pride that he represented one of the three greatest powers at the Washington conference. Does Premier Kato really think that Japan is one of the first-class powers of the world?"

"It is Premier Kato who agreed to the American proposal for limiting Japan's naval strength to 60 per cent of that of America and England. Did he agree to the proposal in the belief that Japan is a first-class power or did he consent to a curtailment of Japan's naval strength under the impression that Japan is a second-class power? Or did he have no belief in the future of his country and signed the naval agreement to please the Americans and British?"

"To speak frankly, Premier Kato, in signing the naval limitation agreement, destroyed the conviction which the Japanese had held since the day of Emperor Meiji. We do not particularly object to the agreement limiting the naval strength of Japan to England. What we cannot tolerate is the tendency of authorities to limit the strength of auxiliary ships to the strength of capital ships. If Premier Kato were firmly determined that Japan should become a first-class power he would not have signed the naval limitation agreement. The excuse may be offered by Premier Kato that the force of circumstances compelled him to agree to the American proposal. If so, there is no reason why he should not take measures which should make Japan first-class in a military sense of the word. Instead of doing this Premier Kato is apparently taking the situation for granted."

"The factor which determines the greatness of a country is the mental attitude of its people. Japan made great progress when her people were moving under the conviction that their country should be raised to the position of a first-class power. She is now treading the downward path with her people satisfied with holding the position of a second-class nation."

WALLACE WILLIAMS IS BELIEVED VICTIM OF A MOST DIABOLICAL PLOT

One of the most heinous crimes that ever occurred in the history of Tonopah and Nye county was reported to the authorities Sunday afternoon shortly after 1 o'clock when the body of a man, supposed to have been Wallace Williams, was discovered buried about three quarters of a mile from the old Frazier wells, six and one-half miles from Tonopah. That the man had been cruelly murdered was not questioned in view of the fact that there were three wrappings of wire around the body and that he had been wrapped in an old comforter previous to being buried beneath about 18 inches of sand. The head had been decapitated, to all appearances, although it is possible that the exposure may have resulted in the head dropping from the body.

The gruesome find was made by James Zimpatti and John Roach, who had visited the premises for the purpose of calling upon G. Dillon and wife, but they found that the couple had departed. In walking around the premises they found the body of the man supposed to be Williams, and immediately hurried to Tonopah, where they reported the matter to Sheriff W. H. Thomas, who in turn notified District Attorney Dunn. Justice of the Peace Cuddy and Frank J. Cavanaugh, the undertaker, as well as Chief of Police O. H. Smith.

Following a prompt investigation it was learned that Dillon left here about three weeks ago and was followed by his wife a couple of days later. Their whereabouts are unknown, but it is believed they are in the vicinity of Taft. A search is now being made for them and telegrams and descriptions have been sent broadcast asking officers to be on the alert and bring about their arrest.

Identification of the body of the dead man is not complete at this writing, although Lee Bell, who claims to have known Williams, says he is quite sure that it is Williams. The remains were badly decomposed and it is said that buzzards had been devouring the remains, or that portion of them that were exposed. The body had been buried at a depth of about 18 inches, but the head and shoulders were not under the wash to a depth of but a few inches.

A wire had been placed around the feet, while another was wrapped around the body below the waist. The third wire had become wrapped around the upper part of the body, pinning the arms to his side. There appeared no marks of violence, and for this reason it is surmised that the man's head had been decapitated. The Dillons have been residents of Tonopah for quite a long time. They conducted the Globe rooming house on Water street, and while no direct charge has been preferred against them, it is surmised that the murder may have been committed at the rooming house and the body taken to the old Frazier wells, where it was buried.

Mrs. Dillon is a striking woman in appearance and weighs about 160 pounds. She has auburn hair and was a neat dresser and was generally admired. Report came in circulation that the woman had left in company of a Serbian, but this was found to be untrue, and she is now believed to have joined her husband in California.

The local officers are conducting a minute investigation and are securing evidence which, it is believed, will result in the guilty parties being brought to bay and prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Judge I. S. Thompson, the next judge of the Seventh judicial district, comprising the counties of Esmeralda and Mineral, accompanied by L. K. Patrick, C. M. Fagenbush and Fred Konka, are visitors to Tonopah today.

WAGES IN TOKIO ARE FAST BEING REDUCED

TOKIO, Oct. 2.—Investigations made by the Tokio chamber of commerce show that wages of general laborers in Tokio are on a downward course. Of the fifty classes of work, ten registered a drop in August and thirty-two remained unchanged from last month. The average index number for the current month indicates a decrease by 1 per cent over the preceding month, although it is 10 per cent higher than the figure recorded for the corresponding period of 1920. Among the works that scored a drop in wages are cement making, blacksmithing, glass manufacturing and drug producing, while spinning, stricklaying and printing registered a slight appreciation.
